I got this in my Vive bundle. It's 20$? Really? It's not really worth that. The gameplay is very shallow. Worst of all, the long weapons can't be held with both hands (as far as I can tell). Nothing worse than shooting a shotgun or assault rifle one handed. And then it auto reloads.

On top of that, it's really grindy in order to unlock the guns. I wouldn't mind so much if the gameplay was more fun.

Would not recommend for 20$, at all.. I wanted to enjoy this game. The lighthearted zombie cutouts were amusing, the game looked and felt good, and the sounds of the guns were solid.

However it's just not worth $20 by any stretch of the imagination ($10 would be more favorable, but still iffy).

The game is so bare in it's content, that it's just not that fun after an hour or two.

Yeah I can unlock more guns (Progression is actually a great tool that some of these content-lacking VR games should use), and there are leaderboards... But outside of those there's really nothing.

The gameplay is very bland, the shooting mechanics while acceptable, seriously need some more active "reload" mechanism, and regardless of the change in levels they all feel identical.

VR is pretty bare game-wise at the time of this review, but even still this sort of empty feeling game just feels overpriced.. Great game! Makes a lot of fun and is easily the least scary Zombie game out there!. Want to like this game. Really want to like this game. Sadly boring after the first few levels. It's a well-made game, Just very little content.. This is the first time I ever wrote a review for any game on Steam (even with 700+ in my library).

I've so far had the vive for a week and have around 70 games\demos so far.

This is by far one of my top 5 games for VR. If you want a great shooter, this is the one to get - the feel of the shooting rivals H3VR, even though it is cartoon zombies - the graphics, especially when it comes to the iron sights is crystal clear which makes it a lot more realistic to aim properly than in most other VR shooters I've tried so far. I've been in the military for over 20 years now, so I have some experience firing guns, and something about the mechanics in this game makes it feel right.

Do NOT let the cartoony style fool you - this is a must buy for your Vive - it is worth every penny!

Edit: If I could ask for one single addition it would be to allow for manual reload of weapons using your offhand vive controller the same way it is done in H3VR. That would make it all but perfect.. It looks good, it feels good, it is interesting and challenging. The game is just right for VR.

This is very calm review. Actual impression was like "HAHAHA HOLY S IT'S AWESOME OMG LOOK AT THEM BOOM!!!!1". I played about 2 hours on the first night. The guns feel very satisfying to shoot. It is pretty fun to fight your way out when you're surrounded by ten zombies right in your face. You can also physically hit them with the gun. Tossing a propane tank into the air and shooting it is pretty cool. Good idea to make individual scoreboards based on weapon selection.

It may be just another VR shooter, but did hold my interest longer than any of the other Vive arcade shooter games on my first play - I think that says a lot. When I play a popular space shooter, I only get 15 minutes out of it till I get bored. The game has several different levels and game modes which keep it from feeling stale too quickly.

I think the sale price that I paid is worth it. I hope a few more weapons or levels are added later.. The suns shining the radios playing, looks like another good day for zombie slaying!

A pretty solid game and easy to pick.

It's cartoon aesthetic is really nice in vr and it doesn't try to scare the pants off you like other zombie games.

The crows foot skill test has been a favorite for a lot of my friends, and makes for a good first vr shooter experience as you can jump straight in try out a bunch of guns, shoot some zombies, all without crapping yourself.

. Want to like this game. Really want to like this game. Sadly boring after the first few levels. It's a well-made game, Just very little content.. Nephew and I playing this constantly. Great gun physics. Dream feature is a co-op campaign mode where one person goes then the other etc through an awesome storyline. Thumbs up recommend. Have it mirrored out to a big tv and it's a blast to watch too.. This is one of those games that looks super average in video and screenshots that you really have to play to appreciate. The guns feel natural to use and killing wooden zombie cutouts is so satisfying when they explode into little bits after a headshot. One of the few games i've experienced in VR where an hour dissapeared on moments..
